v.)	CASE NO. 2:17-CR-394-WKW
)	[WO]
DUANE D. HALE)

ORDER

Before the court is the unopposed motion for early termination of supervised release filed by Duane D. Hale.¹ (Doc. # 23.) A court may terminate a term of supervised release under specified conditions, as set out in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(1). The defendant must have completed one year of supervised release, and the court must find, after considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), that “such action is warranted by the conduct of the defendant released and the interest of justice.” § 3583(e)(1).

Mr. Hale has served more than one year of supervised release. The Government, after consulting with Mr. Hale’s supervising probation officer, represents that the officer confirms Mr. Hale’s compliant conduct and represents that neither the officer nor the Government object to early termination. (Doc. # 26.) Early termination of supervised release is warranted by Mr. Hale’s conduct and is in the interest of justice. Consideration of the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. 3553(a) supports the request for early termination.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the motion for early termination of supervised release (Doc. # 23) is GRANTED.

DONE this 3rd day of June, 2020.
